

Control Work

1. Choose the correct options to complete the sentences.

1. Have you ever _____ such a horrible person in all your life?

A Stop by B Bump into C come across D meet up

2. I hadn't had enough sleep and was feeling kind of _____.

A rebellious B grumpy C nosy D obedient

3. Don't worry about her. She is smart _____ to realize what she has to do.

A enough B too C so D such

4. Mark finds it difficult to _____ guys because he often feels shy, and he doesn't know what to say.

A chat up B put up C cheat on D fall out

5. Mrs. Zoom is wonderful. She _____ people vegetables and flowers from her garden.

A will always give B used always to give C is always giving D always give

6. See that building there? I _____ to school there, but now It's a factory.

A went B was going C is always giving D always gives

7. The agency was created for the _____ of the policy.

A license B implementation C fostering D awareness

8. He's _____ an excellent workers! He deserves to get promoted.

A too B such C enough D so

2. Match the idioms to their definitions.

1 a silver surfer	a ready to use
2 blow a fuse	b to react to a situation with fear and confusion
3 get/have our wires crossed	c a person aged over 50 who uses the Internet
4 not rocket science	d to get angry\ to lose your temper
5 on the same wavelength	e to think similarly or to have the same ideas and opinions
6 re-invent the wheel	f something is easy to understand or do
7 up and running	g to waste time doing something that has already been done correctly
8 hit the panic button	h to misunderstand and someone

3. You are an advice columnist. Tell about teenager's problems and share your personal experiences of handling similar difficulties in personal life, studies, family, etc. Write up 150 words.